- be aged 15 years or older, and
- live or work in New South Wales, and
- no longer be at school.

New South Wales apprentices and New South Wales new-entrant trainees undertaking specific traineeships are eligible to a government subsidy under this program for the qualification that supports their apprenticeship or traineeship.

RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL) AND CREDIT TRANSFER (CT)

Competency-based training places emphasis on the workplace application of attained knowledge and skills not how long spent in training or the amount of knowledge acquired in a formal learning environment.

Australian Qualifications and Statements of Attainments that have been issued by any other Registered Training Organisation (RTO) will be recognised by WBS. To apply for a Credit Transfer, participants must be able to present their original Qualification or Statement of Attainment with National codes and titles that match the current course in which they are enrolled.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the acknowledgment of skills and knowledge obtained through formal training, work experience and/or life experience. The purpose of this process is to identify and assess previously acquired skills and knowledge against the required competency standards.

Course participants applying for RPL must provide evidence to the satisfaction of WBS. This evidence must clearly indicate that the applicant is able to demonstrate all the required skills and knowledge.

Information and documentation regarding the application procedure for RPL and/or Credit Transfers will be made available to all participants upon request.

Please note that RPL cannot be granted for part of a unit. Any applicant may appeal in writing against a decision regarding RPL to the Training Manager by following the 'Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

COMPLAINTS AND APPEALS

Participants are able to submit a formal complaint to WBS relating to any concern they may have (such as academic or attendance record decisions, should they feel a person has acted inappropriately or treated someone unfairly, etc). All complaints are handled with confidence and are reviewed by the RTO National Compliance and Administration Manager.

A participant may also appeal a decision made by WBS in regards to an assessment outcome. Where a participant feels they have been unfairly judged and assessed on a specified task, project or assessment they may have the assessment reviewed by submitting an appeal form. Participants must provide supporting evidence or explanations as to why they feel the assessment is unfair and why they should be given further opportunity to be assessed.

All participants have access to the complaints and appeals policy and procedure and downloaded from our website. The complaints and appeals and privacy policy will be also be discussed with you at your induction.

The Smart and Skilled website is available for you to access at any time. <https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/> or call 1300 772 104.
