How many units can I do? Participants need to complete 12 units of competency

Who can undertake the training? Our entry requirements are that students are competent in written and spoken English

Course pre-requisites? There are no pre-requisites for this course

Duration – 18 months

With regular contact with your Trainer/Assessor a minimum of 5 visits to your workplace, and support from both your employer and workplace supervisors, you'll gain your nationally recognised qualification with plenty of on the job practice! Are you ready to commence your career?

How is the course trained and assessed? The course consists of both theory and practical elements and is completed via assessment within the workplace. Throughout the duration of your training program, you will be provided with feedback on your progress, ensuring you have the skills and knowledge required at the time of assessment. The assessment process will include written and practical written and practical activities, which includes demonstration and observation of your skills. This course will normally require some time away from the working desk completing assignments and self-paced exercises

What is Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)?

If you believe you are already competent in a number of skills through your work or life experience, then those skills may be formally recognised via our RPL program. As part of the RPL assessment your existing skills and knowledge will be assessed by a qualified assessor. You can demonstrate your competence in a variety of ways including performing tasks, sharing your anecdotes about how you carry out tasks in the workplace or providing work samples.

What are the Benefits of applying for RPL?

- It can accelerate you through your qualification
- Your studies remain interesting and challenging (you are not repeating things you already know)
- Reduce study load, fast tracking your qualification.
- Future training opportunities are improved.

Credit Transfer Credit Transfer is the process where the Western Business School accepts and provides credit to you for units of competency that you have previously completed at another training organisation. If you believe you have a Certificate of Qualification or Statement of Attainment for any units previously completed Western Business School will confirm the unit and award a Credit Transfer to you.

Benefits of applying for a Credit Transfer

- It can accelerate you through your qualification
- Reduced study load
- Better planning of future training
