Diploma of Business

Career skills for the teams of tomorrow

How many units can I do? Participants need to complete 12 units of competency

Who can undertake the training? Our entry requirements are for students to have very good computer skills, excellent communication skills and be proficient in written and spoken English.

Course pre-requisites? There are no pre-requisites for this course

How often do the courses run and what is their duration? The course is run within your workplace and we work in with you. It is expected you will take 1-2 years to complete your course

How is the course trained and assessed? The course consists of both theory and practical elements and is completed via assessment within the workplace. Throughout the duration of your training program, you will be provided with feedback on your progress, ensuring you have the skills and knowledge required at the time of assessment. The assessment process will include written and practical activities, which include demonstration and observation of your skills. Some time away from your work station, completing assignments and self-paced exercises is required.

What is Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)? If you believe you are already competent in a number of skills through your work or life experience, then these skills may be formally recognised via our RPL program. As part of the RPL assessment your existing skills and knowledge will be assessed against a range of industry standards by a qualified assessor. You can demonstrate your competence in a variety of ways including performing tasks, sharing your anecdotes about how you carry out tasks in the workplace or providing work samples.

What are the benefits of applying for RPL?

- It can accelerate you through your qualification
- It recognises your experience as valuable
- Reduces your study load.

What is a Credit Transfer? Credit Transfer is the process in which WBS accepts and provides credit to you for units of competency that you have previously completed at another training organisation. If you believe you have a Certificate of Qualification or Statement of Attainment for any units previously completed Western Business School will confirm the unit and award a Credit Transfer to you.

What are the benefits of applying for Credit Transfer?

- A Credit Transfer can accelerate you through your qualification, help reduce study load and allow for better future training planning.

NSW The Smart and Skilled website is available for you to access at any time. <https://smartandskilled.nsw.gov.au/> or call 1300 772 104. The General Manager of WBS is the delegated Consumer Protection Officer and can be
